(3) A monumental inscription in Elmbridge Church, Worcestershire, to Mary the first wife of James Purshull, describes her as "daughter of John Wood, rector (sic) of Clent, by his first wife Bridget, widow of William Perrott, of Belhall, gent., daughter of Francis Conyers, Esq., and sister to Sir John Conyers, Knight and Baronet (sic), sometime lieutenant of the Tower of London, Captain of the King's Life-guard of Horse, and Governour of Berwick-upon-Tweed." I take this Francis Conyers to be the Francis Conyers of Arrow, who is stated in the Warwickshire Visitation of 1619 to have married Elizabeth sister of Sir Thomas Beaufoy of Edmonscote. But it would seem that he lived, after his marriage, at Belbroughton, for besides Bridget, he had three other children baptized there, viz., John (?the Lieutenant of the Tower) on Jan. 28th, 1586; Grey, on Nov. 12th, 1589; and Dorothy, on July 30th, 1592. John Savage, of Egioke, co. Worcester, who died in 1631, aged 52, is stated to have married " Frances, sister of Sir John Conyers, Kt." [Midland Antiquary]

Purshull of Purshull.

ARMS.—Two birds rising over all a bend charged with three bears' heads couped.

CREST.—Out of a ducal coronet a bear's head.

Mr. Purshull says these are the arms of the family, and produced only a seal for proof. And nothing appearing in justification besides, better proof must be made before they can be allowed. One Edmund Purshull of Elmbridge, co. Wor., disclaimed.

Thomas Purshull of Purshull Hall in Elmbridge, Joan.
Yeoman. Will 1579 to be buried in Dockershill
Church. Will at Worcester.
